Bathing and In-patient Care Simulator, Male (M72)

The Bathing and In-patient Care Simulator, Male (Item No. M72, 14 kg, 168cm) by Kyoto Kagaku, Japan is an elderly whole-body manikin built for basic patient care training.

Facilitates the core procedures essential for elderly care. This manikin supports training in bathing, hair care, positioning, and oral care — the everyday hands-on skills central to geriatric nursing.

Flexible and waterproof for realistic, repeatable practice. Flexible and seamless joints combined with a fully waterproof body let trainees practice bathing and hygiene procedures directly on the manikin without risk of damage.

Hands-on hair care training. The manikin enables realistic practice of shampooing, brushing, and drying a patient's hair.

Comprehensive patient handling skills, including positioning, patient handling (carrying and transferring on and off the bed), hair care, oral care, diaper changing and clothing, bathing, and range-of-joint-motion training.
