Product Description

Demonstrate realistic self-examination using this natural casting of a female upper body with medium sized breasts. It can easily be worn in order to better train and practice breast self-examination. Made of new SKINlike™ high-quality silicone. Displays the skin in finest detail very realistic to the touch and dermatologically tested. Breast examination is possible in both upright or lying positions. Benign and malignant tumors in different stages of development hone self-examination skills (two benign tumors, four malignant tumors, and two typical anomalies). Includes "Female Breast" chart, talcum powder, harness, and stand. Dimensions: 22 in. x 17-1/4 in. x 9-1/2 in. Includes a rugged aluminum carry case. Wearable Breast Self-Examination Model with Carry Case (SB50169)

The Wearable Breast Self-Examination Model with Carry Case (Item No. SB50169) demonstrates

realistic self-examination using a natural casting of a female upper body with medium-sized breasts, designed to be worn for hands-on breast self-examination training and practice.

Premium silicone for genuinely realistic touch. Made of SKINlike™ high-quality silicone, the model displays skin in finest detail, is very realistic to the touch, and is dermatologically tested.

Practice in real-world positions. Breast examination is possible in both upright and lying positions, matching how self-examination is actually performed.

Eight distinct findings for comprehensive practice. Benign and malignant tumors in different stages of development hone self-examination skills: two benign tumors, four malignant tumors, and two typical anomalies.

A complete kit ready for classroom or field use. Includes a "Female Breast" anatomy chart, talcum powder, harness, and stand, all housed in a rugged aluminum carry case. Dimensions: 22" × 17-1/4" × 9-1/2".
